7. ALBOHAZEN, Haly (Aboul Hhasan-Ali). Præclarissimus liber in judiciis astrorum, emendatus per Bartholomaeum de Alten de Nusia. Black letter. 98 leaves. With a fine and large woodcut showing the author sitting on a throne, before him Astronomia and Urania. Folio. Vellum. Venice, Sessa, 1503. Frs. 110. —

Essling III, 1380. This astrological work is very remarkable by its splendid woodcut, derived from the Sacrobosco of 1501. — A light, insignificant waterstain in the upper margins of a few leaves. A splendid copy in fresh condition. — A copy of the same edition of our work has been offered in a recent catalogue for Swiss Francs 320. —

8. ALEXANDER TRALLIANUS. Libri duodecim (de re medica). — Rhazes. De pestilentia libellus (i. e. de variolis et morbillis). Omnes emendati per J. Guinterium Andernacum. 12 leaves, 248 leaves. 8vo. Original vellum. Venice, 1552. Frs. 60. —

One of the earliest good Latin editions of either work. This edition has Guinterius' preface, dedicated to Thomas Cranmer, the first protestant archbishop of Canterbury. — Margins of last leaves waterstained, besides good copy.

9. ANGISOLA, A. Compendium simplicium et compositorum medicamentorum, quorum est frequens usus apud medicos et pharmacopolas. — Annectitur unicornis quadrupedis historia; nonnulla de natura orygis, Bisonis, Asini indici, Rhinocerotis, equi indici, etc. 16 leaves, 198 pp., 5 leaves. 16mo. Boards. Piacenza, 1587. Frs. 85. —

A very unusual and exhaustive pharmaceutical work which is only little known. The first part of the work describes in alphabetical order some hundreds of drugs and medical plants, giving their Greek, Latin, Spanish, Arabian, Italian, German and French names, the origin of the plant or drug and its medical use. It is really a pharmaceutical dictionary. Numerous American drugs are described. The third part contains a description of exotic animals, describing the bison, the rhinoceros, and other exotic animals. — A few leaves browned, one leaf insignificantly torn without any loss of text.

10. ARGELLATA, Petrus de. Chirurgia. Black letter. Two cols. 70 lines. 132 leaves, including the last blank leaf. Folio. Modern vellum. Venice, (Printer of Argellata, Chirurgia), 1499. Frs. 775. —

Hain-Copinger-Reichling 1639. Hain 1638. Gesamt-Katalog 2324. Proctor 5703. Brit. Mus. V, 588. Voull. Berlin 4563.

Of great rarity.

"Petrus de Argellata, one of the most famous surgeons of the early fifteenth century, was the author of De chirurgia libri VI, wherein the earlier literature is made careful use of, particularly Avicenna amongst the Arabs, and of the Western authors particularly William of Saliceto, Lanfranchi and Guy de Chauliac, whilst original observations are by no means wanting". — Very fresh, tall and sound copy.

11. ARS DE DOSIBUS MEDICINARUM: Curtius. De dosibus. De septimestri partu. Cassianus, Fr. De sectione venae in pleuritide. Victorius. De dosibus. Montagnana. De dosibus. Rondeletius, G. De ponderibus medicamentorum. 8 leaves, 157 pp. 8vo. Modern vellum. Padova, 1564. Frs. 32. —

Uncommon collection of interesting pharmaceutical works.

12. BACCI, A. De venenis et antidotis. De canis rabiosi morsu et eius curatione. 4 leaves, 84 pp. 4to. Old calf. Rome, 1586. Frs. 26. —

First edition of this work on toxicology.

13. BACCI, A. De thermis (also on American Baths). In quibus agitur de universa aquarium natura, de balneis totius orbis, deque lavationum institutis in thermis Romanorum. 24 leaves, 492 pp., 1 leaf. With double-page woodcut (plan of the thermae Diocletianae) and another large woodcut. Folio. Old vellum. Venice, 1588. Frs. 48. —

Important book on balneology. — Contains several interesting descriptions on American baths (Florida, Mexico etc. etc. pp. 268, 362 etc. etc.).

PRICES IN SWISS FRANCS INCLUDING ALL INCIDENTAL EXPORT EXPENSES.

ON THESE ALREADY REDUCED PRICES WE ALLOW

14. BARTOLI, D. (On the ear). Del suono de' tremori armonici e dell'udito. 8 leaves, 330 pp., 1 leaf. With diagrams and woodcuts, one of which showing the ear. Small 4to. Old vellum. Rome, 1679. Frs. 34. —

An uncommon and little known work on sounds and hearing. The last chapter (about 40 pp.) is entitled: "La notomia dell'orecchio rappresentata al disteso".

15. BARTHOLINUS, Th. Anatomia reformata. Acc. Appendix de lacteis thoracicis et vasis lymphaticis. J. Walaeus. De motu chyli et sanguinis. 8 leaves, 592 pp., 7 leaves. With frontisp., the portrait of the author and many plates. Large 8vo. Calf. Haag, 1655. Frs. 40. —

At the end two interesting treatises, one by Walaeus on the circulation of the blood, in which he gives a convincing proof of Harvey's discovery according to the laws of hydrodynamics, the other deals with the lacteal vessels discovered 1622 by Aselli.

16. BAUHINUS, G. De corporis humani partibus externis tractatus hactenus non editus. 8 leaves, 64 pp. Small 8vo. Modern half vellum. Basel, 1588. Frs. 75. —

First edition. This anatomical text-book was very esteemed in these times and very often reprinted. Rare.

17. BENNET, Chr. Tabidorum theatrum sive phthisios, atrophiae, et hecticæ xenodochium. 6 leaves, 160 pp., 2 leaves. With four figures. 8vo. Modern half vellum. Leyden, 1714. Frs. 20. —

We mention: De saliva acida. De sputi materia. De sputo salinea, subdulci, luteo. De sudoribus. Etc. — A few waterstains.

18. BERENGARIO, Jacopo, da Carpi. Isagogæ breves in anatomiam humani corporis. 80 leaves. With 23 full-page woodcuts. Quarto. Modern morocco. Bologna, Benedictus Hectoris, 1523. Frs. 2.850. —

The rarest of the very few Prevesalian anatomical works. No complete copy of this 1523 — edition has been offered for sale since many years.

Choulant-Frank, p. 140. Unknown to Choulant, Graphische Inkunabeln. Singer, Fasciculo, vol. I, fig. 60 and others.

A few insignificant, light waterstains on last leaves, but a very fine and fresh copy, practically not at all clipped — a very remarkable fact.

19. BERENGARIO, J. Isagogæ in anatomiam humani corporis. 136 leaves. WITH 24 PARTLY FULL-PAGE WOODCUTS OF ANATOMICAL INTEREST. Small 8vo. Modern vellum. (STRASSBURG, H. SYBOLD, 1530). Frs. 800. —

Extremely rare. Choulant-Frank, p. 140 (without having seen a copy citing this very edition only from the hearsay).

Copies of the present, precious edition have been offered for sale for the equivalent of Swiss Francs 2.000. — and 1.450. — A few insignificantly browned leaves, but a very fine and fresh copy with wide margins.

20. BERTRANDI, A. Trattato delle operazioni di chirurgia. 2 vols. 4, 42, 198, 4, 263 pp. With four folding plates showing surgical instruments. 8vo. Old half calf. Naples, 1798. Frs. 28. —

Bertrandi's (1723-1765) principal work. Contains also some chapters on ophthalmology. — Stained.

21. (BIBLIOGRAPHY). — LINDEN, J. A. van der. De scriptis medicis libri duo, quorum prior omnium scriptorum medicorum catalogum continet... posterior vero Cynosuram medicam exhibet. 12 leaves, 1097 pp., 29 leaves, 3 leaves, 160 pp., 1 leaf. With engraved frontispiece. Stout 4to. Old vellum. Norimbergæ, 1786. Frs. 55. —

This work of van der Linden is also today a very esteemed medical bibliography. Contains in alphabetical order exhaustive particulars on all physicians from the earliest times up to Linden's lifetime; there are given not only the different works of each author with dates of the different editions (year, place and printer), but also short descriptions of the authors' lives.

ON THESE ALREADY REDUCED PRICES WE ALLOW
A SPECIAL DISCOUNT OF 15 %.

22. (BIBLIOGRAPHY). — VIRGILIUS a CREUTZENFELD, St. Bibliotheca chirurgica, in qua res omnes ad chirurgiam pertinentes, ipsi vero scriptores, quotquot ad annum 1779 innotuerunt exhibentur. Two stout volumes. 30, 864 pp.; 1 leaf, pp. 865-1914, 1 leaf. Large 4to. Old half calf. Vienna, 1781. Frs. 54. —

Most probably the most extensive bibliography of surgery. — Without the portrait of Stoerk which was added to only a very few copies. — Fine copy. Scarce.

23. BLASIUS, G. Anatome animalium, terrestrium variorum, volatiliū, aquatiliū, serpentum, insectorum, ovorumque structuram naturalem proponens. 4 leaves, 494 pp., 1 leaf. With title and 65 interesting copper plates relating to comparative anatomy. Small folio. Half calf. Amsterdam, 1681. Frs. 58. —

Important work on comparative anatomy. "Blasius was an anatomist of merit, and was the first to describe the arachnoid membrane accurately" (De Lint). We mention: De simia, leone, cane, ciconia, ovo et pullo, raja, bombyce, gallina, etc. — Excellent copy.

24. BOERHAAVE, H. Tractatus de viribus medicamentorum. 6 leaves, 352 pp., 6 leaves. 8vo. Old calf. Paris, 1726. Frs. 14. —

A leading pharmaceutical work.

25. BOHN, J. Circulus anatomico-physiologicus seu oeconomia corporis animalis. 13 leaves, 479 pp., 10 leaves. 4to. Vellum. Leipzig, 1697. Frs. 45. —

"Bohn experimented upon the decapitated frog (Circulus anat.) in an entirely modern spirit, declaring the reflex phenomena to be entirely material, as against the current view of 'vital spirits' in the nerve-fluid. He showed that the pancreatic juice is not acid and that the nerves do not contain a 'nerve-juice'" (Garrison).

26. BONACIOLUS, L. F. De conceptione indicis nec non maris foemineique partus significatione. Quae utero gravibus accidunt; prognostica causaeque effluxionum et abortum; proceritatisque partuum causae. 64 leaves. Small 8vo. Boards. Strassburg, Sybold, about 1537. Frs. 90. —

A very rare and interesting obstetrical work. The contents are strictly of obstetrical interest. We mention: De mira quorundam proceritate puerperii in utero posita tres vulvae potestates, quo mensium numero, quo ordine, quid interim obstetricae agente partus aedatur, etc. etc. — Fine copy.

27. BONANNI, A. P. Recreatio mentis et oculi in observatione animalium testaceorum. 9 leaves, 270 pp., 5 leaves, 1 leaf. With two frontispieces, three titles, 138 copperplates showing testaceous animals and 3 slips. 4to. Vellum. Rome, 1684. Frs. 58. —

Brunet I, 1086. Interesting work of that famous Italian scientist. The first three books deal with the different testaceous animals; the fourth part contains a rich collection of 138 instructive copper-plates. — Complete copies as ours are rare. Stamp on title. Fine copy.

28. CANIVELL, Fr. Tratado de vendages, y apositos para el uso de los reales colegios de cirugía. 4 leaves, 146 pp. With 11 engraved plates showing bandages. 8vo. Old calf. Madrid, 1785. Frs. 20. —

Palau y Dulcet II, p. 30. Spanish treatise on bandages.

29. CASTAIGNE, G. L'or potable qui guarit de tous maux. 146 pp. Small 8vo. Boards. Paris, 1660. Frs. 48. —

Rare edition of that interesting French alchemical work which relates mainly to medicine. — A couple of tiny wormholes.

30. CASTRO SARMENTO, Dr. J. de. Materia medica physico-historico-mechanica. Reyno Mineral Parte Prima. — Dissertatio in methodum incolarionis. Two parts. 2 leaves, 16 pp., 53 pp., 538 pp., 11 leaves, 1 leaf, 4 pp., 43 pp. With copperplate. Thick 8vo. Old calf. London, 1731-1735. Frs. 24. —

The judeo Portuguese author was a member of the Royal College of Physicians of London. The treatise deals with the medical value of mineral and vegetable products. This first part of the 'Materia Medica' is all what has been published.

ON THESE ALREADY REDUCED PRICES WE ALLOW
A SPECIAL DISCOUNT OF 15 %.

31. CESALPINO, A. De metallicis libri tres. 8 leaves, 222 pp., 1 leaf. 4to. Wrappers. Nürnberg, 1602. Frs. 100. —

This rare and interesting work deals with metals in general and precious stones from a medical and alchemical point of view. We mention only: Ametystizontes, Antimonium, Aqua marina gemma, Beryllus, Cystolithos, Iaspis. Cesalpinus describes the medical usefulness and properties of each mineral or metal mentioned. — Rare like all works of Cesalpino.

32. COWPER, W. Anatomia corporum humanorum. 6 leaves, 61 leaves, 3 leaves. Fine allegorical frontispiece, 114 excellent anatomical plates and four additional plates with five figures, not occurring in this edition. Royal folio. Original calf. Leyde, Langerack, 1739. Frs. 145. —

First Latin edition. Choulant-Frank p. 252-53. "Cowper's anatomical work was a beautiful folio adorned by one hundred and fourteen plates only nine of which were original with Cowper. All the others belong to Bidloo" (Pilcher). "Among the nine plates newly added by Cowper, are two well-executed plates, representing the front and back views of the entire musculature" (Choulant-Frank). — The binding somewhat scratched. The plates in excellent impressions.

33. CROCE (Cruce), G. A. della. Cirugia (sic) universale e perfetta. 8, 100, 109 leaves, 1 blank leaf, 59 leaves, 1 blank leaf, 13, 53, 24, 41 leaves, 1 blank leaf, 35 leaves, 1 leaf (printer's device). With five full-page woodcuts and numerous other woodcuts, partly of half-page size showing operations, surgical instruments, bandages, skulls, etc. Folio. Calf (rebacked). Venice, 1583. Frs. 255. —

A standard work in the history of surgical illustration. Very rare.

"Croce, is the first author who has given illustrations of all the instruments for the operation of trephining which had been in use up to his time. The collection of surgical instruments figured in his book, is the most complete published to date" (Pilcher). — Copies of the later 1596 — edition are priced recently at Swiss Francs 400. — and more. — There are a few browned leaves, a few traces of use on several pages, otherwise a good copy of this rare and well illustrated work.

34. DARAN, J. Observations chirurgicales sur les maladies de l'urèthre. Two parts. 1 leaf, 220 pp., 429 pp., 1 leaf. With anatomical folding plate, printed in colours, by Gautier d'Agoty. 8vo. Boards. Paris, 1750. Frs. 80. —

Rare. Proksch II, p. 4. Not quoted by Choulant-Frank. One of the earliest works containing anatomical engravings printed in colours. The most remarkable plate represents three different anatomical reproductions of the male genital. — A few waterstains.

35. DEUSING, A. De motu cordis et sanguinis. Itemque de lacte ac nutrimento foetus in utero. Acc. dissertationes. 22 leaves, 720 pp. 16mo. Half vellum. Groeningen, 1655. Frs. 36. —

An early contribution to Harvey's great discovery from one of the earliest adherents to Harvey's ideas. This second edition is largely augmented by seven different treatises by other contemporary physicians. — Title slightly stained. Rare.

36. DINUS DE GARBO, Florentinus. Chirurgia: necnon de emplastris et unguentis. Addita Gentilis de Fulgineo de lepra: atque Gentilis de Florentia de dislocatione et fracturiis. 157 leaves. Folio. Vellum. Venice, Giunta, 1544. Frs. 125. —

Very rare. Interesting collection of classic surgical works.

We only mention the following chief titles: "De vulneribus in membris, de perforatione vulneris, de contusione et attritione, de offensione super ventrem, de disruptione, de cura ulcerum, fistularum, de vulneribus nervorum, de dislocationibus, fracturis, de fractura cranei, etc. etc." We also mention a treatise: "De apostematibus glandularum". — There are waterstains on the inner margins of some leaves, but a large and good copy. This Venice, 1544 — edition, is rare.

37. DIGBY, Sir Kenelm. Discours touchant la guérison des playes par la poudre de sympathie. — Papin. Dissertation touchant la poudre de sympathie. 248 pp. 16mo. Original vellum. Rouen, 1674. Frs. 35. —

A SPECIAL DISCOUNT OF 15 %.

47. FLUDD, R. Utriusque cosmi maioris scilicet et minoris metaphysica, physica atque technica historia. Tomus primus de macrocosmi historia in duos tractatus divisa. Two parts in one vol. 6 pp., 1 blank leaf, pp. 7-206, 3 leaves, 788 pp., 6 leaves (last blank), one leaf between pp. 276-77. With two curious allegoric frontispieces, and hundreds of engravings, about 60 of which nearly full-page, and 4 folding plates, besides many woodcut diagrams; musical notations. Folio. Vellum. Oppenheim, 1617. Frs. 200. —

Very rare. — First edition of the first volume, complete with both parts. "Fludd (1574-1637) an English physician and mystical philosopher, believed in two universal principles, and in the existence of four elemental spirits. The central principle of his philosophy was that man was a representation or miniature of the universe, and he endeavoured to trace the analogy between what he called the microcosm and the macrocosm" (Enc. Brit.). — Contents: Tract. primus. De macrocosmi principiis. De musica mundana, etc. — Secundus: Arithmetica (arithmetica musica-acoustics), de geometria. De optica scientia. De motu (de variis machinis, with representations of many machines). De cosmographia. De astrologia. De geomantia. Etc. Etc. — There are some leaves with repairs in places; traces of use and some stains. An absolutely complete copy of this rare work, which is unvariably found incomplete.

48. GALILEI, G. Istoria e dimostrazioni intorno alle macchie solari e loro accidenti.... Si aggiungono nel fine le lettere, e disquisizioni del finto Apelle. 4 pp., 164 pp., 56 pp. With the famous portrait by Villamoena, 44 fullpage engravings, four engravings in the text, one folding plate and 17 woodcuts in the text. Small 4to. Original vellum. Rome, Mascardi, 1613. Frs. 975. —

First edition of one of the most important books in the history of science. — Contains Galileo's discovery of the sun-spots. It seems to be unknown to the bibliographers that there are two different issues of the first edition of this work, published in the same year (1613). Our edition is exceedingly rare. Even in Riccardi's copious list of Galileo's works our present edition has not been described. It differs considerably from the one described by Riccardi, by having an Appendix of 56 pp., with additional plates, entitled: "De maculis solaribus tres epistolae. The author of those letters was the Jesuit-Father Scheiner, who claimed to be the real discoverer of the sun-spots. These letters are not contained in the so-called first edition, described by Riccardi. —

A copy of this second issue of the first edition has been offered in a most recent catalogue for the equivalent of 3.125 Swiss Francs. Excellent copy of this standard work.

49. (GALVANI). — ALDINI, G. Essai sur le galvanisme. 3 leaves, 10 pp., 398 pp. With 10 folding plates (experiments). Royal 4to. Fine original binding of marbled calf. Paris, 1804. Frs. 90. —

Very fine dedications copy with the following autograph dedication by the author: Au citoyen Consul Cambaceres comme témoignage de la plus haute estime et profond respect l'auteur. — Contains (pp. 104-165): Application du Galvanisme à la médecine. — Splendid copy.

50. GARCIA ab Horto. Due libri dell' historia dei semplici, aromati et altre cose che vengono portate dall' Indie Orientali pertinenti all' uso della medicina. — Due altri di quelle che si portano dall' Indie Occidentali. Di Nicolo Monardes. Two parts. 12 leaves, 347 pp., 7 leaves, 249 pp., 6 leaves. With numerous woodcuts in the text showing exotic plants and animals. 8vo. Vellum. Venice, 1582. Frs. 80. —

Pritzel 4316. First Italian edition. Two important works on curative plants, drugs, etc. of India and America. Garcia's work is the result of his pharmaceutic studies in India. — Monardes' work is "The earliest American herbal" (Rhode). Known also for containing one of the first accounts and illustrations of the tobacco plant. — Some brownstains. Rare.

51. (GAUTIER D'AGOTY, J. F.). — GEBELIN, A. Histoire naturelle de la parole. 2 leaves, 400 pp., With frontispiece, one plate (alphabet primitif) and a folding plate (larynx, etc.) by Jacques Gautier D'Agoty, printed in colours. 8vo. Original calf. Paris, 1776. Frs. 75. —

The most remarkable feature of the above work is the fine colour-plate by Gautier D'Agoty "père" showing the larynx etc. in six figures. It was engraved for the present edition and appears here for the first time.

(SPEIER, J. AND C. HIST, ABOUT 1484).

ONE OF THE RAREST OF ALL HERBALS.

HERBARIUS LATINUS. Black letter. 31 lines. 172 leaves, including the original blank leaf 156. WITH 150 NEATLY COLOURED WOODCUTS OF PLANTS. Quarto. Wooden boards covered with stamped leather, original clasps (original monastic binding, only rebacked). (SPEIER, J. AND C. HIST, ABOUT 1484). Swiss Francs 3.000.— net.

Hain 8448. Choulant Inc. 2, pag. 14. Schreiber 4207. Klebs, p. 12: a. Hain without having seen a complete copy.

OF OUTSTANDING RARITY.

According to conscientious researches no complete copy of this edition has been offered for sale since more than 20 years.

No copy in the British Museum.

No copy in French public libraries.

One single copy in U. S. A. according to the information of the Kommission fuer den Gesamtkatalog der Wiegendrucke (in the P. Morgan Lib.).

ONE OF THE VERY FIRST HERBALS TO BE PRINTED IN GERMANY, most apparently the fourth or fifth. "There was a break in the activity of the brothers Hist toward the end of 1484; the type of our book, used in 1483 and 1484, was not revived until 1489. It is therefore, highly improbable that this edition was printed later than 1484".

A WORK OF OUTSTANDING IMPORTANCE IN THE HISTORY OF EARLY BOTANY. "The first herbal printed in Germany (Herbarius Latinus). The prototype for all the following herbal editions printed during the 15th and first part of the 16th century. The work was intended to treat of cheap and homely remedies for the use of the poor, such as could be found in the woods and meadows; and by far the greater part is taken up with herbs" (Cat. "Early Herbals").

The title, the number of the woodcuts, and, also the names of plants (in most cases) executed in woodcut. The woodcuts are very remarkable also from an artistical point of view. The woodcuts with their good original colouring.

Our copy belonged formerly to the Convent of Gengenbach, and shows on the title the inscription "Monasterii Gengenbachensis 1623". The title which consists only of the single word "Herbarius" (executed in woodcut), cut out and carefully mounted, the first three leaves of the index very insignificantly browned, with a few tiny wormholes. The most remarkable feature of our absolutely complete copy is its beautiful and untouched condition. In spite of the usual conditions of old herbals, our copy is very fresh and shows extremely wide margins. Early herbals in this out of the way fine condition are of particular rarity.

Black letter. 334 leaves. Folio Very fine original binding of richly tooled pigskin. Lyons, J. Myt, 1525. Frs. 175. —

The Antidotarium of Mesue was the most popular compendium of drugs in medieval Europe, and was used everywhere in their preparation. It is the very first pharmaceutical work of real importance ever printed. — Rare Lyonsese edition, containing the whole of Mesue's works, consisting in three books, and in addition to that, a number of supplementary and similar writings by various authors. — A few leaves slightly discoloured. Fine copy of this rare collectiv-edition in a nice original binding.

85. MORGAGNI, G. B. Opuscula miscellanea. Three parts. 6 pp., 1 leaf, 120 pp., 75 pp., 84 pp. Large folio. Original wrappers. Venice, 1763. Frs. 30. —
First edition. Contains: De glandulis epistola. De lacrymalibus ductibus.

86. MOSCHION. De mulierum passionibus liber, quem ad mentem manuscripti graeci in Bibliotheca Vindobonensi asservati, tum propriis correctionibus emendavit, additaeque versione latine edidit, F. O. Dewez. Greek and Latin text. 3 leaves, 10 pp., 6 leaves, 240 pp. With two figures (uterus). 8vo. Half calf. Wien, 1793. Frs. 65. —

Choulant, Handbuch, p. 95. Choulant-Frank, p. 43. The first, really correct and complete edition. A classic work in the history of gynecology. The illustration (uterus with the ovaries) derives from Vesalius' Epitome, 1543. — Browned. Title stained. Numerous interesting marginal annotations. Bibl. Osler. 322.

87. NEEDHAM, (Rev. John Turneville). Nouvelles découvertes faites avec le microscope, avec un mémoire sur les polypes à bouquet. 8 leaves, 179 pp. With seven large folding plates of microscopic interest. Small 8vo. Original calf. Leyden, 1747. Frs. 48. —

"Needham's work is of biological importance as the first attempt to give a scientific basis to a theory of spontaneous generation. It was attacked by Spallanzani.

88. NUCK, A. Sialographia et ductuum aquosorum anatome nova, acc. defensio ductuum aquosorum, nec non fons salivalis novus. 12 leaves, 158 pp., 18 leaves. With engr. title and six plates showing glands. 8vo. Half vellum. Leyden, 1722. Frs. 48. —

Devoted to the author's investigations on glands and ducts. Gives the description of some of his discoveries (on salivary ducts and glands; on ordinary glands of the dog, etc.).

89. ODDO degli Oddi. De coenae et prandii portione libri duo. 36 leaves, last blank. With nice woodcut title-border. 8vo. Vellum. Venice, Guil. de Fontaneto, 1532. Frs. 52. —

First edition of a rare dietetical treatise, which is not quoted by Vicaire. The author (1478-1558) was professor at Padua. — Rare like all early editions of Oddo's works.

90. PARACELSUS, Theophrastus von Hohenheim. Drey Buecher: Das erst Buch: Die verantwortung uber etzlich verunglimpfung seiner miszguenner. Das andere von dem Irrgang und Labyrinth der Arzten, das sey in andere Buecher lehren sollen dann biszher geschehen. Das dritt von dem ursprung und herkommen der tartarischen krankheiten. 8 leaves, 292 pp., 2 leaves (last blank). 4to. Modern half vellum. Cologne, 1564. Frs. 65. —

Sudhoff nr. 64. Contains three different treatises. The first is written in defence of Paracelsus' views and discoveries. The second (Labyrinthus medicorum) is written for the instruction of physicians. The third deals with tartaric diseases. — Fine copy.

91. PARACELSUS. Philosophiæ ad Athenienses drey Buecher. — Von ursachen und cur der epilepsie. — Von ursprung, cur und heilung der contracten glidern. Three parts. 102 (103) leaves. 4to. Modern half vellum. Cologne, 1564. Frs. 42. —

Sudhoff 65. Contains Paracelsus' great book on epilepsy, one of the earliest, really important works on this subject. — Only one leaf (the last leaf of the third treatise) wanting, the tract on epilepsy and the "Libri philosophiæ" are complete.

92. PAULUS OF AEGINA. Medicinæ totius enchiridion. A. Torino interprete. 34 leaves, 767 pp. 8vo. Old vellum. Basel, 1551. Frs. 54. —

Choulant p. 142. — Good edition of this classical work. Paulus of Aegina's "De chirurgia" was the standard work of this subject up to the time of Albucasis. He gives the fullest account we have of the eye surgery and military surgery of antiquity.

93. PAULUS (NICOLETTI) VENETUS. Expositio in Analytica posteriora Aristotelis. Black letter. Two cols. 70 lines. 117 leaves, including the last original blank leaf. Folio. Venice, Guillemus Anima Mia, Tridensis, 1486. Frs. 240. —

Hain-Copinger 12512. Proctor 5108. Brit. Mus. Cat. V, p. 410.

Rare and important. — Paulus Venetus = Paulus Nicoletti of Udine (died 1429 at Padova), was called "Princeps" or Monarca philosophorum. His commentary upon the 'Analytica posteriora' is one of the best commentaries on this classic work, and of lasting scientific interest. — The first leaf insignificantly stained, but a splendid copy with wide margins. Some interesting marginal annotations by an early hand.

94. PENOTUS, G. B. Tractatus varii, de vera præparatione et usu medicamentorum chymicorum. 256 pp. 8vo. Boards. Frankfurt, 1594. Frs. 38. —

101. REDI, Fr. Esperienze intorno a diverse cose naturali e particolarmente a quelle che ci son portate dalle Indie. 3 leaves, 152 pp. With 6 engraved plates. Half vellum. Florence, 1686. Frs. 24. —

Gamba, 816. Very interesting treatise of this celebrated naturalist, dealing especially with exotic plants. The plates represent the peppertree, vanilla, Chinachina, etc.

102. REDI, Fr. (Collected works). Opere. 6 volumes. With 33 interesting copper-plates. 4to. Orig. boards. Naples, 1740-42. Frs. 75. —

Gamba 836. Brunet IV, 1174. — Valuable edition of the collected works of this great scientist. Contains: Esperienze intorno alla generazione degl'insetti. Osservazioni intorno agli animali viventi, che si trovano negli animali viventi. Esperienze intorno a diverse cose naturali. Osservazioni intorno alle vipere. Lettera intorno all'invenzione degli occhiali. Etc. Etc. — Two volumes waterstained, some wormholes.

103. (RICETTARIO FOR POOR PEOPLE). Colleta de molte nobilissime ricette tratte da diversi eccellentissimi medici... a comodità di poveri. 4 leaves. With a nice and interesting woodcut border showing musical instruments and fauns. 16mo. Boards. No place, but Italy, about 1530. Frs. 42. —

Rare like all the early editions of the popular collections of recipes. We mention: A cacciar via i calli delli piedi (against corns), per la milza, per far orinare, a uno che avesse tosse (cough), a chi avesse turba la vista (eye-diseases), some recipes for women-diseases, etc. — The border very slightly shaved at the exterior margin.

104. RIOLAN, J. (the Younger). Schola anatomica novis et raris observationibus illustrata. Adiuncta foetus humani historia. 3 leaves, 396 pp. Small 8vo. Vellum. Geneva, 1624. Frs. 30. —

"Riolan made many additions to anatomical knowledge" (Singer).

105. ROSELLIUS, C. Thesaurus artificiosae memoriae, concionatoribus, philosophis, medicis perutilis. 16 leaves, 145 pp., 1 leaf. With about 25 full-page woodcuts mostly relating to mnemotechnics, and five woodcuts illustrating the deaf-and-dumb-alphabet, one large folding plate and several smaller woodcuts. 4to. Original vellum. Venice, 1579. Frs. 75. —

It is of a singular interest that this book contains five full-page woodcuts showing figures of the deaf-and dumb alphabet. — Partly browned. Two blank pieces of the title-page repaired.

106. ROSTINI, P. Trattato del mal francese, nel quale si discorre sopra 234 sorti di esso male. 87 leaves. 8vo. Modern half vellum. Venice, 1559. Frs. 48. —

Brunet IV, 1410. Proksch I, 101, (under Brassavola). Scarce and extensive book on syphilis, containing several allusions to America. Enumerates 234 cases of syphilis.

107. ROUSSET, Fr. Ysterotomokia. Opera C. Bauhini latine reddita. Adiecta est J. Albosii Lithopaedii per annos XXIIIX in utero contenti, historia. 8 leaves, 272 pp., 3 leaves. With the large folding woodcut plate of embryological interest. 8vo. Half vellum. Basel, 1588. Frs. 165. —

Very rare first Latin edition of the first important work on the Caesarean section. Complete copies, as ours, with the appendix of Albosius and with the folding plate, are very rare. Rousset was amongst the first to practise abdominal surgery and performed 15 Caesarean sections successfully. Albosius' treatise at the end describes a strange case of a petrified embryo. — Our copy of this precious work is a very fine one. The very few extant copies of this book usually are in bad conditions.

108. RUYSCH, Fr. Observationum anatomico-chirurgicarum centuria. Acc. Catalogus rariorum quae in museo Ruyschiano observantur. Two parts. 8 leaves, 138 pp., 2 leaves, 120 pp. With 40 copperplates in the first part and 6 in the second. Amsterdam, 1691. — Thesaurus anatomicus I, II, III, IV. 4 leaves, 62 pp., 1 leaf, 2 leaves, 98 pp., 2 leaves, 70 pp., 1 leaf, 55 pp. With 13 copperplates. Amsterdam, 1701-04. Two different works bound together. 4to. First illustrated edition of one of the best anatomical text-books of the 18th century. Divided as follows: Ostéologie et myologie; splanchnologie; angiologie et neurologie; mémoires et observations.

110. (SALERNO, School of). Martin, L. L'escolle de Salerne en vers burlesques. Poema macaronicum de bello Huguenotico. 10 leaves, 74 pp., 1 leaf. With Martin's portrait. 4to. Old limp vellum. Paris, 1650. Frs. 45. —

Rare edition of that famous French parody on the Regimen Sanitatis. — Several leaves somewhat waterstained, besides fine copy.

111. SALUTATO, L. P. C. De nobilitate legum et medicinae, in quo terminatur illa quaestio: Utrum dignior sit scientia legalis vel medicinalis. 107 leaves. Woodcut border around the title. 8vo. Boards. Venice, 1542. Frs. 55. —

This little known work which compares the usefulness of the study of medicine and law, is rare. First edition. Contains some interesting chapters on the history of medicine: De medicina quid sit et eius origine. De inventoribus legum et medicinae, containing particulars on medical history. — Some stains and traces of use, but good copy.

112. SCHOENER (Schoner), J. De iudiciis nativitatum libri tres. Praefatio Ph. Melanchtonis. 8 and 152 leaves. With beautiful, figural woodcut initial letters and diagrams. Folio. Half calf. Nuremberg, 1545. Frs. 65. —

One of the most extensive works on astrology of the first half of the sixteenth century. — Beautifully printed and adorned by a fine woodcut ornament on the title. — A fine and large copy.

113. SCARPA, A. Memorie anatomico-chirurgiche sull'ERNIE. 4 and 84 pp. WITH 20 EXCELLENT FULL-PAGE PLATES, ten of which outline, engraved by Anderloni. Royal folio. Half calf. Milan, 1809. Frs. 70. —

"Scarpa's anatomic prints rank with Soemmering's illustrations and even surpass them in respect of the vigor of the engravings" (Chculant-Frank). — First edition of Scarpa's famous anatomical atlas on hernia.

114. SCARPA, A. Riflessioni ed osservazioni anatomico-chirurgiche sull'aneurisma. 2 leaves, 4 pp., 114 pp. WITH 15 MAGNIFICENT FULL-PAGE PLATES, five of which outline, by Anderloni. Royal folio. Half calf (binding damaged in places). Pavia, 1804. Frs. 85. —

First edition. — "Scarpa's illustrations are the crown and flower of achievement in anatomic pen-drawing" (Garrison). — Bottom margins of some leaves dampstained, the engravings in wonderful impressions.

115. SCHRICK, Michael Puff von. Von den ausgebrannten Wassern (on distilled waters). Black letter. 33 lines. 12 leaves. 4to. Full morocco. (Strassburg, Martin Schott), 1483. Frs. 875. —

Sudhoff, Deutsche Medizinische Inkunabeln, nr. 159. Reichling 1863. Unknown to the other bibliographers.

Of outstanding rarity.

No copy in the British Museum or the Bodleian Library. No copy in U. S. A. according to Census. No copy in the Osler Library. No copy in the Surgeon Library. No copy of this edition has been offered for sale, to our knowledge, since more than 20 years.

A standard work in the earliest literature of pharmaceuticals and distillation. The book treats of the medical use of the extracts distilled from about 70 flowers or herbs.

117. (Servetus). — SARPI, P. Istoria del Concilio Tridentino. Con note critiche, di Le Courayer. Two stout volumes. With the portrait of Sarpi. Quarto. Original half calf. London, 1757. Frs. 65. —

Confer Osler, Bibl. nrs. 904-914. — Fra Paolo Sarpi (1552-1623) was one of the most important claimants to the discovery of the circulation of the blood before Harvey. The passage on Servetus is contained under the year 1554, pp. 15-16 of the second volume.

118. SEVERINUS, M. A. De efficaci medicina libri tres. 7 leaves, 297 pp., 7 leaves. With several surgical woodcuts. Folio. Old calf (damaged). Frankfurt, 1646. Frs. 25. —

Important surgical work. "Severinus (1580-1656), surgeon at Naples, was a skilful operator and forerunner of modern comparative anatomists" (Power-Thompson). — Entirely browned as usually.

119. SOEMMERING, S. T. De basi encephali et originibus nervorum cranio egredientium libri quinque. 4 leaves, 184 pp., With four copperplates, one of which out-line. 4to. Wrappers. Goettingen, 1778. Frs. 38. —

"Soemmerings inaugural dissertation, written at Wrisberg's instance and of lasting anatomic value" (Choulant-Frank, p. 304).

120. STELLUTI, Fr. — (Persius). Persio tradotto. 12 leaves, 218 pp., 10 leaves. With title, portrait of Persius, and several engravings, amongst which two microscopic views of the bee and the weevil. 4to. Original limp vellum. Rome, 1630. Frs. 75. —

First edition. — The most interesting feature of this work are the illustrations of which one full-page engraving shows several bees and their single parts, as observed under the microscope, the other a weevil. — "The first work demonstrating the use of the microscope for scientific purposes was furnished by Francesco Stelluti (anatomy of the bee)" (Neuburger-Pagel, II, p. 54). — Some waterstains, some leaves browned.

121. SWALVE, B. Alcali et acidum, sive naturae et artis instrumenta pugilica per Neochmum et Palaephatum ventilata. Engraved frontispiece showing the author, at the right the cadaver of a dog, at the left furnaces. 10 leaves, 275 pp. Small 16mo. Original vellum. Amsterdam, 1670. Frs. 20. —

First edition.

122. SYLVIUS, J. and Gregorius, M. — Galenus. De usu partium corporis humani libri XVII. Acc. J. Sylvii Isagoge. 12 leaves, 470 pp., 1 leaf. Stout folio. Modern half vellum. Paris, Chr. Wechel, 1538. Frs. 110. —

Of unique importance in the history of anatomy. "In that remarkable work (Uses of the parts of the body of man), vastly influential in the ages which followed, Galen seeks to prove that the organs are so well constructed, and in such perfect relation to the functions to which they minister, that it is impossible to imagine anything better...." (Singer, Anatomy). — This early edition of Galen's anatomical work is edited by Sylvius (1478-1555). — Finely printed. A few brownstains, but a tall copy. Some interesting marginal annotations. Rare.

123. TANSTETTER, V. Tanau, Georgius (Collimitus). Artificium de applicatione astrologiae ad medicinam, canones aliquot et quaedam alia. 62 leaves. With woodcut title. Small 8vo. Vellum. Strassburg, 1531. Frs. 75. —

Early work on astrological medicine. — With an interesting preface by the famous botanist Otto Brunfels. — We mention the following sections: "Axiomata de diebus criticis, de naturis planetarum, de ministracione pharmacorum et phlebotomia, etc." — A few leaves washed, but good copy.

124. TARIN, P. Myo-graphie ou description des muscles du corps humain. 1 leaf, 171 pp. With 38 engraved plates, 9 of which outline plates. Large 4to. Old calf. Paris, 1753. Frs. 48. —

First edition. With Latin and French text. "Pierre Tarin (1725-61), is remembered by the 'valves of Tarin', part of the ependymal roof of the fourth ventricle" (Power-Thompson).

125. ULSTADIUS, Ph. Coelum philosophorum seu liber de secretis naturae. 431 pp., 7 leaves. With many interesting partly fullpage woodcuts showing stills. 16mo. Original vellum. Lyons, 1553. Frs. 65. —

Nice handsome edition of this well known work on distillation and alchemy, profusely illustrated with numerous woodcuts. — Last leaves waterstained, otherwise good copy.

126. VESALIUS, A. De humani corporis fabrica libri septem. 6 leaves, 824 pp., 24 leaves, 2 leaves (after p. 504), 1 leaf (after p. 552). With beautiful historiated frontispiece, 23 full-page cuts, very numerous large and small woodcut figures in the text, the portrait of the author. Large folio. Original calf (18th cent.). Basel, Oporinus, 1555. Frs. 975. —

Choulant-Frank, pp. 181-182. "This second edition (1555) therefore has especially for practical purposes, advantages over the first on account of additions in the text and in the illustrations and particularly on account of its more splendid makeup" (Choulant-Frank). — There are a few repairs on the very wide bottom margins of several leaves, some leaves waterstained on outer margins, but a good, tall and absolutely complete copy with the famous frontispiece not at all clipped (a remarkable fact for this book) and the woodcuts in magnificent impressions.
